

PRESS RELEASE

NORMAN POLICE DEPARTMENT

On January 10, 2012, Detective Daren Morgan stopped a vehicle in Norman south bound on I-35 for a traffic violation. The 27 year old driver of the vehicle was identified as Trenton Eric Iverson from Seattle, WA. During the contact with Iverson, Detective Morgan became suspicious of further criminal activity unrelated to the traffic stop. Detective Morgan's K-9 partner "Lux" alerted to the vehicle. Detective Morgan and his partner Detective Kellee Robertson searched the vehicle and located $225,030.00 in U.S. currency concealed in a hidden compartment. Iverson was arrested for Possession of Drug Proceeds and Maintaining a Dwelling/Vehicle where Drugs are Used, Sold, or Kept. The case remains under investigation by the Norman Police Department Special Investigation Division.
